

Team Meeting Notes

Month Day, 2026

Agenda:

- Use the agenda to plan out things for this meeting!
 - You can also write things down in advance so that you avoid forgetting things
 - A good agenda makes your meetings faster & more organized
- Brainstorm solutions
- Start project timeline and check with team coordinator (Aiden/Arjun/Moksh/Payas)
- Who does what research? Divide up the research responsibilities among team members

Notes:

Overall, keeping a record of meeting notes helps you and your teammates be more organized as a unit.

After this meeting, you can refer back to this document to reference good ideas, see who worked on what, or address past problems.

To-Do List:

- Write down some tasks to get completed before the next meeting or by whenever!
- Finish research by the end of break so we can start up strong on Monday
- Complete trade studies so we can decide on best parts for our project
 - Review with team coordinator and ask any questions!
- Reach out for help from faculty advisor or ThinkTank officers on specifics
- Nolan -
- Lauren -
- Guillermo -
- Cody -

Address in next meeting:

- Future plans that may be worth putting in next meeting's agenda